National Social Justice Webinar Walking Together with Indigenous Sisters: Making Connections

June is National Indigenous History Month in Canada—a time to learn about and honour the rich history, unique heritage, traditions and contributions of First Nations, Inuit and Métis peoples.

You are invited to join sister League members for a special webinar presented by the national social justice Indigenous relations subcommittee. During this session, subcommittee members will share their personal journeys of faith and service, offering heartfelt and insightful narratives as both Indigenous and non-Indigenous women. Together, we will explore how these experiences align with the collective journey of “Walking Together.”

This webinar is an opportunity to foster deeper connections among members through meaningful dialogue that nurtures unity and strengthens the bonds of sisterhood within the League.

Let's come together, learn from one another and build lasting connections in the spirit of unity, advocacy and love. The subcommittee looks forward to sharing this transformative journey with you!

Registration is available through the Events Calendar on the national website.
